Offertory: Sing my Soul His Wondrous Love ..... Ned Rorem
Sing my soul, his wondrous love, who from yon bright throne above,
Ever watchful o'er our race, still to us extends His grace.
Heaven and earth by Him were made, All is by His scepter swayed;
What are we that He should show so much love to us below?

God the merciful and good, bought us with the Savior's blood,
And, to make our safety sure, guides us by His spirit pure.
Sing, my soul, adore His name; Let His glory be thy theme:
Praise Him till He calls thee home, Trust his love for all to come.

Hymnic Notes: The processional is a hymn of endless praise, that celebrates a God of justice and freedom who identifies with the oppressed poor and helpless. It has appeared with this sturdy tune in every Methodist hymnal since 1780. The recessional was written for the Second Assembly of The World Council of Churches, Evanston, Illinois, 1954, and reflects that gathering's energy, optimism, and hopes for Christian unity.
(Hymnic notes by Carlton Young)

March 19, 2017
Preaching: Michael Williams
“Grace as a Gift”

Romans 3: 19-24

Now we know that whatever the law says, it speaks to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be silenced, and the whole world may be held accountable to God. For “no human being will be justified in his sight” by deeds prescribed by the law, for through the law comes the knowledge of sin. But now, apart from law, the righteousness of God has been disclosed, and is attested by the law and the prophets, the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction, since all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God; they are now justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus.
