Everyone is welcome at West End! We seek to be the loving light of Christ in Nashville and beyond. We gather as the people of God with a wide range of religious backgrounds, education levels, political and theological perspectives, and we value that diversity. We welcome and celebrate the gifts God has given to all without regard to gender identity, race, sexual orientation, economic or family status, ethnicity, or mental or physical ability. We believe God loves everyone unconditionally!

Bulletin Cover Art: "Samuel Addressing the People, I Sam. viii.10-18" drawn by Charles Joseph Staniland (1838-1916), a British artist, trained at several art schools and eventually admitted to the Royal Academy. He was a prolific painter and illustrator, mainly for a number of newspapers and magazines. This is one of his rare biblically-themed illustrations.

Music Participants: The Sanctuary Choir. Andrew Risinger is the organist/director. Matthew Phelps is assisting at the organ.

Today's Music: LAUDA ANIMA, the name of the tune for our opening hymn today, is Latin for the opening words "Praise, my soul." It was written by John Goss in 1868 for Lyte's text, "Praise My Soul the King of Heaven." A reviewer for the 1869 Musical Times wrote, "It is at once the most beautiful and dignified hymn tune which has lately come under our notice" (Psalter Hymnal Handbook, 643). Paul Westermeyer writes, "It has been praised as one of the finest, if not the finest of the Victorian hymn tunes, and certainly one of the most satisfying for congregations" (Westermeyer, Let the People Sing, 243).
