God of all people,

protect our interests over the needs of the marginalized,

Give us the strength and courage to take your gifts and pass them on to the world, even when it's risky, so that all may live in your steadfast love.

Everyone is welcome at West End! We seek to be the loving light of Christ in Nashville and beyond. We gather as the people of God with a wide range of religious backgrounds, education levels, political and theological perspectives, and we value that diversity. We welcome and celebrate the gifts God has given to all without regard to gender identity, race, sexual orientation, economic or family status, ethnicity, or mental or physical ability. We believe God loves everyone unconditionally!

The altar flowers today are provided by the Flower Fund.
Many thanks to those who have contributed to the fund. Donations designated for this fund are used on Sundays when there are no individual donors.

A rose on the table celebrates the birth of Elizabeth Parrish Stevens to Abby and Mark Stevens on April 19th.
She is, also, welcomed by her big brother Wright.

The call to worship is adapted from Psalm 99. The prayer of confession was written by Matthew Phelps.

Bulletin Cover Art: "These Lepers Went into the Tent," drawn by Charles Joseph Staniland, prolific British artist and illustrator of The Illustrated London News in the 1870s and 1880s.

Music Participants: The Sanctuary Choir. Andrew Risinger is organist-director and Matt Phelps is assisting at the organ.

Today's Music: For our recessional hymn, the tune, "Sine Nomine," literally means "without name" and it is one of four tunes the composer contributed without attribution to the first edition of The English Hymnal, 1906. It remains one of the most widely used tunes from the repertory of unison tunes composed in Great Britain in the early part of the 20th century. (Carlton Young)
