Introit: Where Charity and Love Prevail..... Dundee

† Processional Hymn No. 117: O God, Our Help in Ages Past..... St. Anne

† Call to Worship Will McLeane

Liturgist: O God, your constant love reaches to the heavens, your faithfulness extends to the skies.

People: Your righteousness towers like the mountains, your justice is deeper than the sea.

Liturgist: All find protection under the shadow of your wings. We feast on the abundance you provide.

People: You are the source of all life, and in your light, we see light.

† Call to Confession

† Prayer of Confession (in unison)

Merciful God, we confess that we have resisted your unrelenting grace and denied the coming of your Son, Jesus Christ.

We have filled our hearts with loves that do not satisfy. We have forgotten the needs of our neighbors and the cries of the poor.

We have failed as stewards of your good Creation.

By the power of your Holy Spirit, free us for joyful obedience that we may follow Jesus in the life that is truly life.

† Silent Confession

† Words of Assurance

Liturgist: Hear the good news: Christ died for us while we were yet sinners; that proves God's love toward us. In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

People: In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

All: Glory to God. Amen.

† Passing the Peace

Liturgist: As a forgiven and reconciled people, let us exchange signs of reconciliation and love. The peace of Christ be with you.

People: And also with you.

† Gloria Patri.....No. 71

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning,
is now and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen. Amen.

Anthem: I Will BowFrederick Chatfield

I will bow and be simple,
I will bow and be free;
I will bow and be humble,
yea bow like the willow tree.

I will bow, this is the token,
I will wear the easy yoke,
I will bow and be broken,
yea, I fall upon the rock.

(Shaker tune and text)

Sermon: The Great Commandment Bishop Ken Carter

† Affirmation of FaithNo. 883

We are not alone, we live in God's world.

We believe in God: who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made Flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit.

We trust in God.

We are called to be the church: to celebrate God's presence, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope.

In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us.

We are not alone.

Thanks be to God. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer (in unison)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.

Amen.

Offertory: Let Us with a Gladsome Mind Alan Ridout
Let us, with a gladsome mind, praise the Lord for he is kind:
for his mercies shall endure, ever faithful, ever sure.
Let us blaze his name abroad, for of gods he is the God:
for his mercies shall endure, ever faithful, ever sure.

He with all commanding might, filled the new-made world with light:
for his mercies shall endure, ever faithful, ever sure.
He is the golden tressed sun caused all day his course to run:
for his mercies shall endure, ever faithful, ever sure.

for his mercies shall endure, ever faithful, ever sure.
All things living he doth feed, his full hand supplies their need:
for his mercies shall, endure, ever faithful, ever sure. Amen

“O God our Help in Ages Past” was written by Isaac Watts in 1714, shortly before the death of Queen Anne of England. This was a time of great crises and turmoil, as the successor of Queen Anne was as yet undetermined and the fear of a monarch who would reinstate the persecution of Protestants was great. King George I prevented such persecution, but the fear before Anne's death was great. This was the context in which Watts wrote his powerful text, now lauded as “one of the grandest in the whole realm of English Hymnody” (Bailey, The Gospel in Hymns, 54).

VILLAGE PERSON NEEDED

The Villages of Glencliff, a mission our church supports, is the "medical respite" - temporary housing for unhoused persons who have had surgery. A new female resident has settled in and we would like to provide a special friend ("a Village Person") to have regular contact with her through the mail, by phone, and with an occasional visit. Residents typically stay for 90 days. Please contact Kay Gray at 615.545.6987 or kgray510@gmail.com for more info and to volunteer.

FALL MEMBERSHIP CLASS

This will be a four-week session that meets on the first floor in McWhirter Hall at 9:45 am starting September 24. Each week we will take a look at the five membership vows all United Methodists commit to upon joining: to faithfully serve Christ by your Prayers, Presence, Gifts, Service, and Witness. We will also discuss some specifics of United Methodism doctrine and history. After attending at least three of the four sessions, participants will be invited to join the church at either worship service on Sunday, September 29th (or another fourth Sunday later in the year). Register now at westendumc.org/membership.
