We trust in God.
We are called to be the church: to celebrate God’s presence, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified

Today's Music

Charles Wesley first published the text, "Christ, Whose Glory Fills the Skies," in Hymns and Sacred Poems, 1740. The text was included in a number of nineteenth century hymnals after being published in two other eighteenth century collections. The tune Ratisbon entered our hymnals in 1935 in the version found in Hymns Ancient and Modern.

Bulletin Cover Art

"The Transformation of Jesus Christ," was painted in 2006 by Cornelis Monsma who grew up in The Netherlands with no art training but now lives in New Zealand and describes his work this way: "Like many other fellow Christians, I started out with a well-meaning attitude of 'wanting to do my part' for the Christ who gave so much for me. I ended up, however, finding 'me' wanting, and I found that Christ doing His part Himself through me, was the only fruitful situation to be in."

There will be an interest session on Wednesday, February 21, at 6 pm in McWhirter Hall for all who want to learn more. Email Rev. ## FEBRUARY'S COMMUNION OFFERING - 30 HR FAMINE

For the month of February, our communion offering will benefit the 30-Hour Famine. Our youth will go without food for 30 hours on March 1st and 2nd to experience hunger. They are doing this to raise money and awareness for two different ministries this year. The local ministry is Villages at Glencliff to continue their ongoing work of housing persons who need medical respite. The second ministry is World Vision to help bring food and clean water to starving children around the world! Thank you all so much for your generosity!
